SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 5 years. The Court waives the cost of supervision.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Michael James Cobbledick
CASE NUMBER: 0645 2:21CR20762 (1)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand additional information regarding these conditions is available at the www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. ' 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency, in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense.
2. You must successfully complete any sex offender diagnostic evaluations, treatment or counseling programs, as directed by the probation officer. Reports pertaining to sex offender assessments and treatment shall be provided to the probation officer. Based on your ability to pay, you shall pay the cost of diagnostic evaluations, treatment or counseling programs in an amount determined by the probation officer.
3. You must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the probation officer as a means to ensure compliance with the requirements of supervision or treatment. No violation proceedings will arise solely on the results of a polygraph examination. Based on your ability to pay, you shall pay the cost of the polygraph examination in an amount determined by the probation officer.
4. You must not have contact, directly or indirectly, with any victim or witness in this instant offense, unless approved by the probation officer.
5. You must not have direct contact with any child you know or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18, (including/not including) your own children, without the permission of the probation officer. If you do have any direct contact with any child you know or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18, (including/not including) your own children, without the permission of the probation officer, you must report this contact to the probation officer within 24 hours. Direct contact includes written communication in-person communication, or physical contact. Direct contact does not include incidental contact during ordinary daily activities in public places.
6. You must notify anyone you date or marry with a minor child under the age of eighteen (18) of your conviction.
7. You must not purchase, sell, view, or possess images, in any form of media or live venue that depict pornography, sexually explicit conduct, child erotica, or child nudity. You must not patronize any place where such material or entertainment is available.
8. You must have employment pre-approved by the Probation Department. You must not be employed at or participate in any volunteer activities that involve contact with minors under the age of eighteen (18) or adults with disabilities, without prior approval from the probation officer.
9. You must have all residences pre-approved by the Probation Department. You must not provide care or live in a residence where children under the age of eighteen (18) or adults with disabilities also reside, without prior approval of the probation officer.
10. You must participate in the Computer/Internet Monitoring Program (CIMP) administered by the United States Probation Department. You must abide by the Computer/Internet Monitoring Program Participant Agreement in effect at the time of supervision and comply with any amendments to the program during the term of supervision. Due to the advances in technology, the Court will adopt the amendments to the CIMP as necessary. For the purpose of accounting for all computers, hardware, software and accessories, you shall submit your person, residence, computer and/or vehicle to a search conducted by the U.S. Probation Department at a reasonable time and manner. You shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition. You shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information including billing records (telephone, cable, internet, satellite, etc.).

11. You must submit your person, residence, office, vehicle(s), papers, business or place of employment, and any property under his control to a search. Such a search shall be conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner based upon a reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; you must warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
12. You must participate in a mental health treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.).
13. The defendant shall make monthly installment payments on any remaining balance of the (restitution and special assessment) at a rate and schedule recommended by the probation department and approved by the Court.
14. The defendant shall not incur any new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with the payment schedule.
15. The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information.
